15. Insurance regulations

All foreign drivers must personally provide their own personal injury (AD&D) insurance covers and are not required to show their relevant policies to the FIM.

The insurance coverage for the race guaranteed by the FIM also includes civil liability (R.C.) (insurance coverage as a result of damage caused to third parties during tests and the race with the exception of damage between boats) and R.C. for operations concerning “hauling and launching” provided that all the subjects involved in the aforementioned operations are formally authorized by the Organizers in signing letters of duties or work service contracts with a description of the commitments entrusted.

Instead, to have the necessary insurance coverage for damage caused to third parties during testing and racing (no damage between racing boats), foreign pilots must send the FIM (r.lauta@fimconi.it) 15 days before an event takes place, a copy of your insurance policy (drafted in English and signed by the drivers themselves or by their National Authorities), where the certainty that the insurance policy is also valid on the Italian National Territory must be clearly highlighted.

The FIM will inform the riders of the acceptance of the documents received as soon as possible and, in any case, no later than 48 hours before the event. If a driver does not report the policy signed by him or his National Authority within the terms indicated above or if the insurance coverage in the area proves inadequate, the driver himself, in order to participate in the event, will have to request the insurance extension of the policy drawn up by the FIM. The cost of extending the Civil Liability (TPL) coverage towards third parties is €90.00.

Drivers will receive a signed receipt. All drivers (Italian and foreign) during the administrative checks must sign the “Race organizer’s liability release form”, under penalty of failure to participate in the event.

A minimum of two team members must manage the launching or hauling operations and it will be the responsibility of the team members to attach the lifting straps to their boat and weighing device.

The Team will be responsible for any damage caused by suspension failure or incorrect connection to the boat or crane.

Upon arrival at the hauling and launching area, the boats must be ready for launching (equipped with ropes, fenders, etc.) otherwise the launch itself may be refused.
